Curling Rocks!

Let it Curl...

Oct 12th was a great day for the MTA Events Center! Eighty-four people attended the 1st ever MTA Events Center "Learn to Curl Night". This venture started out at the end of last year's ice season with Alaska's 2-time Olympian Jessica Shultz. Jessica showed us some tips and peaked our interest in the sport. The curling word got out, created a buzz around town, and we enjoyed a wonderful turn out as the sounds of Curling made its mark in Palmer's Ice Arena.

Thanks to everyone who helped make this happen and a big shout out to Cindy Rosenberg and Elena McNutt for having everything run so smoothly.

Are you Ready for the Winter with Palmer Public Library?

Palmer Library's winter programs are in full swing! Storytime has been well attended as parents and youngsters are meeting back up after a short break between the Summer Reading Program and Winter programs. Our classic film was 1938's "Thanks for the Memory". A quaint, family friendly comedy featuring a very young Bob Hope. Our foreign film, "Happy People: A Year in the Taiga", sparked a lively discussion. Open Room Crafts for adults, and Middle School

Movie nights for tweens are always a big hit. Did you know the library has microscope & telescope kits, a boombox, an overhead projector, a slide projector, and e-readers you can check out? Stop in and find out how. Also, check out our upcoming events at pplak.org/calendar.

Cherished Memories Shared at the Depot.

Untold Stories was a great success! About seventy people turned out to the Depot to watch seven storytellers each share a tale of “Blue Tarps, XTRATUFS, and Duct Tape.” Our next event will be held January 26th at the Presbyterian Church in Palmer, and our theme is “The One That Got Away (Big Fish, Bold Dreams, and Broken Hearts). We at the museum would like to thank the City of Palmer for the use of the Depot for this wonderful community program. If you missed the event, you can find recordings of these stories, and/or previous sessions as well, at Big Cabbage

Radio’s website!

The Palmer Museum has two exhibits coming up:

Birds of the Shore is an art exhibit by local artist Rhonda Horton that captures the quiet, contemplative wonder of the birds of the Palmer hay flats. This mixed media display, featuring paint, plates, and poetry, will be featured at the Palmer Museum through November 5th.

Butte Art Club Reception: Join us November 8th from 4:45 to 5:45 for the opening of Butte Art Club’s newest exhibit! This year, students are painting what they love about their hometown, and we are excited to share their work for all of Palmer to see!
