INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING ACCESSORY DWELLING UNIT (ADU) APPLICATION

The following information must be submitted with the application:

1. A written description of the interior and exterior modifications that will be done to accommodate the accessory dwelling.
2. A completed and signed Accessory Dwelling Unit Application packet including a site plan showing dwelling location, showing setbacks from all property lines, location of ADU if detached from principal unit, location of parking on site to serve the primary unit and the accessory unit, dimensions of parking spaces, and elevation drawing showing ADU if detached, as well as all changes to principal unit, including indication of all entrances to primary and accessory units.
3. If necessary, a completed Building Permit application.
4. Nonrefundable fee $100.00 will accompany the ADU application.
5. Additional information may be required.

Once the ADU application has been submitted to our office:

- The zoning administrator will review the application for code compliance within 30 calendar days.
- The zoning administrator will notify the applicant in writing of approval or denial.
- Approved ADU applications will require the owner to complete and file with the State of Alaska Recorder's Office the Covenant for Accessory Dwelling Unit (attached). Print covenant document single-sided, leave the pages unstapled and leave margins and font as shown to comply with the recording requirements for the SOA Recorder's Office.
- A copy of the recorded covenant must be returned to Community Development before a building permit may be issued.
- Recording is required to finalize the ADU approval before any building permits may be issued, or before the use of the ADU may commence.
- Once a copy of the recorded covenant has been received by our office, a permit for the accessory dwelling unit will be issued.

17.86.040 Development standards

Development standards ensure that accessory dwelling units maintain and are compatible with the single-family appearance and character of the principal residence, lot, and neighborhood. All ADUs must conform to the following standards:

A. Codes. The ADU shall conform to all applicable codes, laws, and regulations.

B. Design. Attached ADUs shall maintain the style and exterior finishes consistent with the existing structure. Detached ADUs shall have exterior finishes that are consistent with local industry standards for residential exterior cladding. All exterior work shall be completed within eight months of start of construction.

1. Accessory dwelling units contained within the principal dwelling unit shall be connected to each other by an interior door.
2. There may be only one entrance located on each front or street side of the residence.

C. Height. The maximum height of a detached ADU shall be 25 feet.

D. Lot Area. The combined square footage of the principal and accessory dwelling units may not exceed the lot area coverage in the underlying zoning district.

E. Orientation. On lots of 40,000 square feet or less, detached ADUs shall be located at least 10 feet behind the front plain of the principal dwelling unit. On lots of 20,000 square feet or over, should the placement of the ADU in the rear of the lot negatively impact a neighbor's view shed, a waiver from this requirement may be requested from the planning and zoning commission. Testimony from the impacted neighbors is encouraged.

F. Parking. One parking space shall be provided on site for each studio and one-bedroom ADU. Two parking spaces shall be provided on site for each two-bedroom ADU. Parking for the accessory unit is in addition to the required parking for the principal dwelling.

G. Setbacks. ADUs are subject to the setback and coverage requirements of the underlying zone.

H. Size. The ADU shall not be more than 40 percent of the gross floor area of the principal dwelling unit. An ADU may not be less than 300 square feet or more than 900 square feet. A maximum of two bedrooms is permitted.

Covenant for Accessory Dwelling Unit

The Palmer Municipal Code Title 17, chapter 17.86 addresses accessory uses and structures on residential property located in the City of Palmer. Section 17.86.060 requires the owner of property to record a Covenant in the real estate records and provide a copy to Community Development, before a building permit for an accessory use structure can be obtained.

The owners intend to build an accessory dwelling unit, and to record this Covenant in compliance with Palmer Municipal Code 17.86.

Legal Description of Property:

(If the legal description is lengthy, you may use an attachment. Important: Use the legal description from the Deed or Certificate of Title, not a property tax legal description or street address.)

The Owners of the above property are: (List each owner's first and last name)

The Owners agree to restrict use of the principal and accessory dwelling units located on the above described property in compliance with Palmer Municipal Code, Title 17, Chapter 17.86, Accessory Dwelling Units.

As a condition of the accessory dwelling unit, the Owners shall have the title company notify the City of Palmer within 30 calendar days of change of ownership.

The Owners agree to notify all prospective purchasers of those requirements.

The restrictions include that an owner of the property shall occupy at least one dwelling unit on the zoning lot as their primary place of residence a minimum of six months each calendar year, or, the owner shall remove those features of the accessory dwelling unit that make it a dwelling unit, as determined by the City of Palmer Community Development.

At the request of a property owner and upon an inspection finding that an accessory dwelling unit has been removed from the owner's property, the zoning administrator for the City of Palmer shall record a release of this Covenant.
